

CLAUDE JAMMET

Born in Zimbabwe of French parents, Claude Jammet grew up in Kenya, India and Japan in addition to long sojourns in France, before settling in South Africa where she began her career as a professional painter. Over the past 20 years Jammet has lived and worked in Liguria, Italy.

As an artist Jammet is completely self taught. Over a career spanning five decades Jammet has held some 20 solo exhibitions as well as group shows across South Africa, Europe and Japan. Her work is held in numerous private and corporate collections across the world.

“Public Enemy No. 1”, oil on paper on canvas , 80x60cm

d'HAUDRECY

ART GALLERY bv

Zeedijk 779 · 8300 Knokke-Zoute (Belgium)

Tel. +32 50 60 90 21 · Mob. +32 475 38 58 20

www.dhaudrecy-art-gallery.com · dhaudrecy@skynet.be

“Sentinel 1”, oil on paper on canvas , 139x100cm

CLAUDE JAMMET

Exhibition 28.10.23 - 19.11.23