“Taichi”, 2022, 116x89cm, oil/canvas

“The vision of time and space in the illusion is strange, like a dream. It seems that time does not exist, only space. Sometimes it seems as if a scene appears in the memory and then disappears in a flash. It may be a shift in time and space between illusion and reality. Sometimes it is like a childhood dream memory, near and far, a world of pure nature. The feeling is magical, poetic and mysterious...”
